Dear Friends,

Are you interested in volunteering with other young professionals to help low income families stabilize their lives?

Venice Community Housing Corporation (VCHC) is seeking young professionals to become members of a Young Professionals Board that will raise awareness and support for VCHC's neighborhood based solutions for low income people by organizing 3 to 4 fund and friend-raising events throughout the year. This is an excellent opportunity for motivated and philanthropic-minded young professionals in their 20's and 30's to network, practice leadership, and help low income people stabilize their lives.

For more than 22 years, VCHC has been developing lasting, neighborhood-based solutions for low income families and individuals. We own and manage nearly 200 units of non-profit affordable housing, both transitional and permanent, that produce income to help us serve our residents. We also provide a comprehensive program that includes job training, youth development and employment, life skills coaching and family services. This blend of housing and supportive programs allows our formerly homeless and low income constituents to stabilize their lives and achieve economic self-reliance. Every person who transitions out of homelessness or joblessness adds to the strength of our community. Our efforts make neighborhoods safer and more inclusive for everyone.

If you are interested in becoming a Young Professionals Board member, please fill out the attached application and send it with a resume or summary of your work experience to marlies@vchcorp.org or VCHC, Attn: Marlies Kovenock, 720 Rose Ave., Venice, CA 90291. If you have any questions or would like additional information, please feel free to contact me at (310) 399-4100 ext. 103 or marlies@vchcorp.org.

Sincerely,

Marlies Kovenock
Associate Director of Development
